

Donsife, whose wife is Blanche Donsife; a son, Clarence Donsife, whose wife is Pearl Donsife; and a daughter, Charlotte Donsife Houck, who is now a widow, her husband having died since these proceedings were started; all of whom reside in Woodsboro District, Frederick County, Maryland. I also know Catherine Donsife Keeney, who resides in Richmond, Virginia. Her husband's name is Thomas Keeney. All of these parties are more than twenty-one years of age and are all the parties who are interested in the real estate of Mary S. Donsife.

The real estate of Mrs. Donsife consists of a lot and improvements, on what is known as Front Street, in the town of Woodsboro, but Front Street has become back street, or it is not the main street. The improvements on the lot consist of a story and a half log house, weatherboarded, containing about six or seven rooms. There is a summer house on the land and a stable.

I don't see how the property can be divided among the parties in interest without loss and injury. It is practically impossible to divide property such as this into a great number of parts represented by the various persons. I would think the property would bring about Eight Hundred Dollars:

To the general interrogatory: I believe it would be to the benefit of all of them to sell this property as soon as they can.

Ira G. Hauck.

Whereupon the hearing adjourned until Thursday, the second day of February, 1939^{at two P.M.} on which day at the place aforesaid I proceeded to take the following depositions of witnesses in this cause then and there produced before me, that is to say: Present, Mr. Parsons Newman, Solicitor for the Plaintiffs.
